

Training

- Specialized Training for HVAC Cleaning

- Training modules system → training is matched to your professional background

Robimech Duct Cleaning Training:

Robimech offers a full covering special training for duct cleaners and ventilation hygiene companies. Our long time experience of HVAC-systems and duct cleaning will give you knowledge and proficiency in your environmental business.

The training is intended for people with different background. The training is especially composed to your goal and your previous knowledge. For this different training modules are available.

The training time range from four to six days depending on the number of modules included.

We can offer training at your company or at our factory in Sweden.

Topics:

- Operating Duct Cleaning Equipment
- Duct Cleaning in Practice
- Duct cleaning procedure choosing methods and tools
- Duct Cleaning Project Planning
- Service and maintenance of duct cleaning equipment
- Quality control and IAQ
- Ethics and self-control
- International duct cleaning legislations and guidelines
- International societies and associations

